Treasurer DW

Presented accounts showing balance of circa £3126 with prepayments and deposits of which part will be utilised to subsidise cost of coach transport for Captains day.

Reported is separately chasing outstanding monies from individual members.

Raised point on Club shirt money and future orders with dan C having apparently indicated does not wish to be further involved.

Captain Karl F

- 1, Announced would not be circulating a blackout due to low numbers in attendance.
2. Congratulated Sean on win at Sherfield Oaks and recorded thanks to Ian T for organising.
3. Circulated sign-up sheets for:
 - a) Pete F's Morris Crocker event at Boundary Lakes , and
 - b) Malcom G's event at Southwick Park
4. Thanked Des and Tommy for the successful comedy night , but expressed regret at the poor support from the Society with only about 15 Members in attendance.
5. Mentioned trying to find new date for the postponed Dave E & Dave B Texas Scramble even.
6. Reminded members next round of Singles and Doubles to be completed by end of September as per details on Website.
7. Mentioned forthcoming Captains day -and eligibility criteria - which led to a discussion as to the Rules and whether some re-defining necessary. Agreed that Top Table would review and come back with report and/or proposals for next meeting.

Social Chair – Des A

1. Reported about £100 had been raised through the "boxes" on Comedy Night to be divided at the Committee's discretion between Karl's Charity and Society funds.
2. Reminded Members of date of Fireworks night event 4/11.

A.O.B

1. Dean E raised the (recurring) issue of Slow Play in Society games leading to a general discussion.

2. Date of next Meeting 13/9 at RC .

MW thanked members for attending and closed meeting 8.00 pm.
